

2004 Honorary Citizens

1.	04-09-30	Ackerly, Jacquie	Social justice and education of community on issues of poverty and human rights
2.	04-09-30	Courtnall, Bruce J. Courtnall, Russell W. Courtnall, Geoffrey L.	Courtnall brothers raised over $2 million net for "Archie Courtnall Centre" to provide assessment and treatment to all those who face the problem of mental illness
3.	04-09-30	Dominelli, Maria	Business / Community Volunteer / Multiculturalism
4.	04-09-30	Henley, Sheila	Community Volunteer /Heritage /Communication
5.	04-09-30	Leung, Joseph Shiu Sing	Strong leadership to Chinese Community, multiculturalism and community volunteer work
6.	04-09-30	Mickelson, Norma I.	Mentor, leader and pioneer in the field of employment equity and human rights. Rec'd Order of Canada, rec'd Order of British Columbia and was named among Canada's most powerful women by the Women's Executive Network
7.	04-09-30	Potentier, Douglas W.	Professionalism / Community Volunteer
8.	04-09-30	Rabinovitch, Dr. Jannit	Award winning projects with marginalized populations, which were recognized internationally and acknowledged as best practice models within Canada.
9.	04-09-30	Reed, James Harrison	Sports / Community Volunteer – provided governance, strategic planning, project management, fundraising and marketing for Sports (Commonwealth & Olympic Games) and Special Needs
10.	04-09-30	Simmons, Eric	Professionalism /Social Politics/ Community Volunteer
11.	04-09-30	Spicer, Anne Margaret Elizabeth	Health/Housing – Brought to Victoria the Abbyfield concept of living with people of similar needs in a home-like setting. Organized "Seniors Serving Seniors". Rec'd Order of Canada
12.	04-09-30	Spriggs, Alison	The Land Conservancy – Community Volunteer in environment and land conservation