

Notice of Possible Scam– Individual Posing as City Employee

Date: Friday, February 27, 2009

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — It has been reported to the City of Victoria that an individual posing as a City of Victoria employee is approaching residents door-to-door in Fernwood asking for personal information and access to their home to conduct air quality testing.

The City of Victoria is NOT conducting air quality testing and residents should NOT give this individual any personal information or access to their home.
