

Small Quake Reminds Us to Get Prepared

Date: Saturday, June 06, 2009

For Immediate Release

---

VICTORIA, BC — This morning's 2.0 magnitude earthquake felt in the Victoria area is Mother Nature's gentle reminder to get prepared.

This weekend is a perfect opportunity to take stock of what you need to get prepared and have a conversation with your family about emergency preparedness.

For more information and to learn what your family will need to survive up to three days without support, visit preparevictoria.ca

— 30 —

For More Information:

Katie Josephson
Public Information Officer
Victoria Emergency Management Agency
250.361.0210
250.217.8343