

A Behind-the-Scenes Look at Preparing Royal Athletic Park for Professional Baseball

Date: Thursday, August 20, 2009

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — With the Victoria Seals in their final home stretch of the season this week, it's important that Royal Athletic Park be in top form.

Media is invited to a behind-the-scenes look at what it takes to host a professional baseball league. Parks crews will be on site tomorrow working the infield, from raking the cinder and preparing the pitching mound, to painting lines and setting up batting boxes.

What: Behind-the-Scenes at Royal Athletic Park
When: Friday, August 21, 2009, from 10 a.m. – 11 a.m.
Where: Royal Athletic Park, 1014 Caledonia Avenue

Media is asked to meet at the vehicle entrance at the corner of Green and Vancouver Streets.

Purchased by the City in 1925, Royal Athletic Park has been home to many different sports teams, hosting the FIFA U-20 World Cup in 2007. The park is now home base for the Victoria Seals of the Golden Baseball League. For more information on the Victoria Seals, visit: www.victoriaseals.ca
