

Celebrate the 4th Annual Tree Appreciation Day

Date: Thursday, October 29, 2009

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC – Many trees in Victoria’s urban forest are aging or have been lost to winter storms and disease. Tree Appreciation Day provides an opportunity for the community to come together to replace these trees and plant a future for generations of citizens to enjoy.

The public and the media are invited to join the City of Victoria in planting trees and shrubs this Sunday in Stadacona Park and to bring problem leaf, twig or insect samples for advice at the 4th Annual Tree Appreciation Day.

What: City of Victoria 4th Annual Tree Appreciation Day
When: Sunday, November 1, 2009, from 10 a.m. - noon
Where: Stadacona Park, 1490 Pandora Avenue

Registration is not required. Refreshments will be served.

Participants are asked to bring their own tools and gloves as supplies are limited, and to dress for the weather as the event will happen rain or shine. Remember to set clocks back one hour on Saturday night as Daylight Saving Time comes to an end.
