

Centennial Parkade to Close for Repairs Easter Long Weekend

Date: Wednesday, March 31, 2010

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — The Centennial Parkade will close for concrete repairs over the Easter long weekend. Parking will not be available on Friday, April 2 to Monday, April 5, 2010. The parkade will reopen on Tuesday, April 6, 2010 at 6 a.m.

During this time, CRD vehicle access on the Mezzanine floor of Centennial Parkade will remain open. Monthly parkers will be able to use their access card to park at Johnson Street Parkade during the closure. Signs will be posted.

Repairs to the Centennial Parkade elevator are also underway and are expected to be completed by Monday, April 19, 2010. Two temporary marked "disabled" parking spots are available near the entrance of the parkade and signs are posted.

The City of Victoria apologizes for any inconvenience this work may cause.
