

A Behind-the-Scenes Look at Preparing Royal Athletic Park for Professional Baseball

Date: Thursday, May 20, 2010

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — With the Victoria Seals' first home game tomorrow, Royal Athletic Park is gearing up to host a winning season.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITY:

Media are invited to a behind-the-scenes look at what it takes to host a professional baseball league. City Parks crews will be on site tomorrow morning working the infield, from raking the cinder and preparing the pitching mound, to painting lines and setting up batting boxes.

What: Behind-the-Scenes: Preparing Royal Athletic Park for Professional Baseball
When: Friday, May 21, 2010, from 10 a.m. – 11 a.m.
Where: Royal Athletic Park, 1014 Caledonia Avenue

Media are asked to meet at the vehicle entrance at the corner of Green and Vancouver Streets.

Purchased by the City in 1925, Royal Athletic Park has been home to many different sports teams, hosting the FIFA U-20 World Cup in 2007. The park is now home base for the Victoria Seals of the Golden Baseball League. For more information on the Victoria Seals, visit: www.victoriaseals.ca
