

WANTED: Volunteers to Help Prepare Victoria for a Disaster

Date: Thursday, August 19, 2010

For Immediate Release

---

VICTORIA, BC — Want to be part of a team? Help your community prepare for a disaster? Make a difference? Volunteer with the Victoria Emergency Management Agency, the City of Victoria's resource for helping citizens prepare for an emergency.

Volunteer and be part of the action – whether it's assisting evacuees, providing emergency radio or operations support, or educating the community on what it will take to cope for three days or more in the event of a disaster.

Volunteers must be 19 years of age or older and undergo an annual criminal record check.

Drop by our upcoming Recruitment Fair to learn more, Wednesday, September 8, 2010 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Victoria Fire Hall 1 at 1234 Yates Street. Registration is not required.

For more information, visit: PrepareVictoria.ca and click on Recruitment Fair under Quicklinks.

— 30 —

Please consider this announcement for your community calendar or events listings.

For More Information:

Rob Johns
Emergency Coordinator
Victoria Emergency Management Agency
Office: 250.920.3355
Cellular: 250.888.3594