VICTORIA, BC — Late this afternoon, the Victoria Fire Department was called to the Ritz Apartment building in the 700 block of Fort Street. A potential hazardous material has been located in the building and the building has been evacuated.

The CRD Hazmat team has been called out to assist. Victoria Fire Department, VicPD, BC Transit, BC Ambulance Service and Victoria Emergency Management Agency are on scene.

Updates to follow as more information is known.

— 30 —

For More Information:

Katie Josephson
Director of Corporate Communications
Cellular: 250.217.8343