

Multi-Artist Mural Underway in North Park Neighbourhood

Date: Wednesday, October 4, 2017

For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — A new mural is underway in Victoria. City of Victoria Artist in Residence Luke Ramsey is working in collaboration with seven local and two out-of-town artists to create a large mural on the commercial building fronting Cook and North Park Streets. The finished mural will feature the North Park neighbourhood's self-selected colour palette.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITY:

Luke Ramsey and fellow artists are painting the mural this afternoon and are available for interviews.

WHAT: New mural underway in North Park neighbourhood
WHEN: Wednesday, October 4, from 1 p.m. – 3 p.m.
WHERE: Commercial building fronting Cook and North Park Streets

The artist team includes James Kirkpatrick, Tyler Keeton Robbins, Charlie Walker, Kristofer Ray, Ian George, Kay Gallivan, Jesse Campbell, Ali Khan, Sarah Jim and Luke Ramsey.

Ramsey worked with the North Park Neighbourhood Association and local businesses to develop the project which will enhance the area. Collaboration has been a guiding force during Ramsey's residency and this mural takes it to the next level with the 10-person artist team. In addition to using North Park's colour palette, the mural features what is known as a gesture line that travels through each of the artist's work to unify the art piece.

The mural is expected to be completed by the end of the long weekend.
