Flag-Raising at City Hall to Celebrate Pride Week

Date: Friday, June 22, 2018
For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC — On Monday at 11:30 a.m., the Pride, Transgender, Non-Binary, Genderqueer, and 2-Spirit flags will be raised at Victoria City Hall in support of the LGBTQ2+ community.

Mayor Helps will begin with a speech, before inviting members of Council to raise the flags together. The five flags will fly in unison until July 6. They will then be flown on the City of Victoria's float at the 25th Annual Victoria Pride Parade on July 8.

The City of Victoria is proud to be a welcoming and inclusive community for all people regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity or expression.

All are welcome to join us at this celebration.
