

Friday, October 21, 2022 | For Immediate Release

Be Mayor for a Day – Enter the Victoria Votes Kids Colouring Contest

VICTORIA, BC — Kids 12 and under are invited to enter the Victoria Votes 2022 Kids Colouring Contest and have their artwork displayed at City Hall in December.

Three participants will be selected at random to serve as "Mayor for the Day" in early 2023 to learn more about how their local government works and enjoy a complimentary pizza lunch with Mayor Marianne Alto.

Entries will be displayed so that no personal information is visible other than the child's first name and last initial and age on the front.

Colouring sheets were available at voting places and can be picked up at Victoria City Hall and the Crystal Pool and Fitness Centre. The colouring sheet is also available online in two sizes for printing.

The deadline to enter the colouring contest is Friday, November 25.

You can submit your colouring sheet to the Public Service Centre at City Hall, at the front desk at Crystal Pool and Fitness Centre or mail it to: Victoria Votes 2022 Kids Colouring Contest, City of Victoria, 1 Centennial Square, Victoria, BC V8W 1P6

For more information, visit: victoria.ca/election.

—30—

For More Information:

Colleen Mycroft
Manager of Executive Operations and City Communications
250.896.5325 | cmycroft@victoria.ca