ELECTOR IDENTITY INFORMATION REQUIRED

To be an eligible elector, you must meet all of the following requirements:

- 18 years of age on General Voting Day (October 15, 2022); and
- Canadian citizen; and
- be a resident of British Columbia for at least six months immediately before the day of registration; and
- be a resident in the City of Victoria, or a registered owner of real property in Victoria for at least 30 days immediately before the day of registration; and
- not be disqualified by any enactment from voting in an election or otherwise disqualified by law.

Eligible resident and non-resident property electors who are not on the City of Victoria's List of Electors may register to vote at any Advance Voting Opportunity or on General Voting Day by making application to register to the Presiding Election Official at the Voting Places listed above. To register you will require the following:

Resident electors require two pieces of identification which between them prove identity and residency, one of which must have your signature. Electors unable to prove their place of residence must make a solemn declaration as to their place of residence.

Non-resident property electors must, in addition to the two pieces of identification noted above, provide to the Presiding Election Official at a voting place proof of ownership of the property.

When applying to register, non-resident property electors must provide proof of ownership, such as a property title deed or 2022 City of Victoria Property Tax Notice listing the name(s) of the property owner(s). If more than one person is listed as owner of the property, only one of those individuals may, with the written consent of the majority of the owners, register as a non-resident property elector. If applying to register on General Voting Day, please allow yourself enough time to reach a voting place prior to the close of voting, which occurs at 8:00 p.m. on October 15, 2022.

To check if you are registered as a resident or non-resident property elector, go to www.victoria.ca/election.

All electors may be asked to prove their identity at the Voting Place. New electors registering for the first time must present two of the identity documents noted below.

Elector Identity Documents

The following are valid identity documents for proving elector identity:

- BC Driver's Licence (Note: the dual BC Driver's Licence and Care Card are considered one (1) piece of ID)
