

Contemporary Music - Matt Stern

Welcome to Contemporary Music. This beautiful song called 'Like a Wave' is written and performed by Vancouver Island-based musician Matt Stern. Enjoy!

Like a Wave

Like a wave folds into the sea
I will hold you close to me
Blue skies
Dry your eyes
We're leaving the dark behind
Now you hear my voice in your hear
May you always feel me near
The ocean is wide
We're rocking on the tide
May you always feel safe inside
So come rest your head on my knee
I will rock you gently to sleep
Stars are in your eyes
I can see their light
They'll colour your dreams tonight
When the blue moon shines above
May she fill your world with love
Hold her in your heart
And when the sky is dark
Inside you will feel a spark
So dream now with your full heart
