

Welcome to B.C. nature sounds. You will shortly be transported to the waters off the northern coast of Vancouver Island. In this unique recording you can hear calls from the Northern Resident Orcas reverberating underwater in the deep fjords. Thank you to the Pacific Biological Station, Fisheries and Oceans Canada for this remarkable recording.