

Small's Cow Song

O cow, your eyes
are wide as sunrise.
They wink me
inside your mouth.
Hiho!

Mother likes clover
but not to munch.
I like mine with tea
and milk. Father has no
time for cuddle.

My sisters won't wear
jerseys itchy
as your tongue.
Won't burp your rag-
doll tail. Don't pout.

Your calf cleaned
my face happy ever after lunch. Do clouds sit up straight? Rain gets dirty when it falls down.

I love your hopscotch yard
of puddles. Splash!
That stone's my marker.
Hen combs me toes. Are there pictures in the gravel?

Cow, your pasture gate
creaks me into bed.
Owl snores me
prayers.
Moo my candle out.
