Biography

In 100 words or less, please share your personal, artistic, or cultural background, or other elements you deem important to publicly introduce who you are and your work. This will be used for external purposes (City website and media announcements) if your artwork is selected.

Area of Interest:

- I am interested in incorporating community input into my mural
- I am interested in working collaboratively with other artists
- I am interested in mentoring another artist

Preference for type of mural. Check all that apply:

- Small
- Medium
- Complex

Please ensure that your artwork meets the following requirements:

- Images are high resolution and that each individual file is under 5 MB in size. This will allow for quality viewing by the Selection Panel and viewing on the Mural Roster website.
- Image files are titled correctly: Title your images in the following order (o1_LASTNAME_firstname, o2_LASTNAME_firstname, up to 10_LASTNAME_firstname).
- Work must be recent and no more than 5 years old.

Mural Roster Application Form

If your artwork is selected for a City mural opportunity, you acknowledge that it is a temporary display and the artwork may be subject to wear and tear from age, environmental elements and vandalism. The City retains the right to alter, remove or relocate the Public Art if the installation site is required for purposes deemed necessary or expedient by the City. If your artwork is selected you are giving the City permission to reproduce an image or images of the Public Art for promotion and documentation purposes only. If the Public Art appears in any publication issued by the City, the name of the artist will be displayed.
