

Built in 1896, the Leiser building was constructed as a warehouse for the wholesale grocery business of Simon Leiser. In 2008, along with its neighbour, the 1900 Thomas Earle warehouse, the building was transformed by developer Chris LeFevre into 30 new loft apartments, at a cost of over $6.3million.

The Leiser Building
524-534 Yates Street

Tax Incentive Program

Interior - top floor unit of the Thomas Earle Warehouse

The Leiser Building
530 Yates St.

Loft unit in the Leiser building

Tax Incentive Program

