Celebrate National Tree Day at Spring Ridge Commons

Date: Tuesday, September 25, 2012                                    For Immediate Release

VICTORIA, BC – Join Mayor Dean Fortin and the Friends of the Spring Ridge Common in celebrating National Tree Day with the planting of two pear trees and one apple tree at Spring Ridge Commons.

PHOTO OPPORTUNITY:

What: Mayor Dean Fortin and local preschool children will plant trees for National Tree Day and take part in story-telling and singing activities with Doug Paterson of the Harmonious Family Choir.
When: Wednesday, September 26, 2012, 11 a.m. – noon.
Where: Spring Ridge Common at the corner of Gladstone Avenue and Chambers Street.

Parks staff will also be on hand to discuss the great benefits of clean air, wildlife habitat, and reduction in energy demand, trees provide.

For More Information:
Katie Josephson
Director of Corporate Communications
Office: 250.361.0210
Cellular: 250.217.8343